DARTMOUTH'S

July 9-15 1995
July 23-29 1995

This week long summer camp dynamically combines four of the most exciting things you'll ever experience. Residing on the University of Dayton's campus as well as utilizing some of the areas finest and most outrageous experiential adventure sites, MEGACAMP promises to be a physical, emotional and intellectual experience that you'll never forget! We invite 13-17 year old students in junior high, middle and high school from across the Midwest to explore how you can ...

“Reach beyond where you thought you could go!”

Adventure Challenges will include rock climbing and repelling forty foot rock faces, low level and high level ropes course initiatives four stories high. These experiential adventures give the participants opportunities for growth in areas such as personal and team leadership, self-esteem, problem solving, positive peer pressure, communication skills, trust and increased levels of self-confidence.

“We’re going to challenge you by choice outside, so you can break through your limitations inside!”

“You’re going to learn in an exciting way that’s going to make you better!”

Superior Learning Strategies, presented by Sylvan Learning Center® certified teachers, will help students read quicker, take notes faster and prepare themselves for tests better. Sylvan Learning Center® specializes in helping students master learning skills as well as gaining the confidence necessary to succeed. And they have already led nearly one million students to success in schools across the country.

The Journey program explores in group settings the goals, the aspirations, the hopes and wishes of each individual. We'll meet in small, informal groups of all types. The Journey is a way to reach into and discover the inner strength of one's own potential, to build on abilities and help integrate the thoughts, feelings and actions that drive us all. This unique and creative program is designed to help teenagers tap their imaginations in order to better understand themselves.

“A week long journey, looking at where you’ve been, where you’re going and how you’re going to get there!”

Motivation is certainly one of the keys to maintaining success in life and MEGACAMP will definitely be one of the most motivating events ever experienced! Nationally recognized speakers will be inspiring all participants throughout the week. Getting students to motivate themselves is the focus of everything we do. Whether it is the Adventure Challenges, Sylvan's Superior Learning Strategies or The Journey Program, EVERY aspect of MEGACAMP's programmed curriculum develops a sense of self-motivation and personal leadership in each individual.

“Inspiring the self-motivation and personal leadership inside you to make it last forever!”
